

Glen Sagdal

February 26, 1955 - March 15, 2026

Glen Sagdal, a lifelong resident of East Wenatchee, Washington, passed away peacefully on March 15, 2026. He was born on February 26, 1955. Glen spent his life rooted in the community he loved, surrounded by family, friends, and the natural beauty of the region he called home.

A devoted husband, father, and grandfather, Glen found his greatest joy in his family. He was a proud father to his two sons, Ian and Patrick, and a loving grandfather to Haven, Brayden, and Ryker, who brought him endless pride and happiness. He also shared his home and heart with his beloved wife Tracie and his two dogs, Bo and Sage.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Glen found peace and purpose in the outdoors. Whether casting a line in a quiet river or heading out before dawn during hunting season, he cherished the time spent in nature and carried a deep respect for the land. He was also an avid sports fan who rarely missed a game and especially enjoyed watching his two sons play sports throughout the years. These passions were more than hobbies—they were a way of life that he proudly passed down to his family.

Glen will be remembered for his steady presence, his love for his family, and his appreciation for the simple, meaningful moments in life. He leaves behind a legacy of quiet strength, hard work, and enduring love.

He is survived by his loving wife, Tracie; his two sons, Ian and Patrick; his sisters, Mary, Marie, and Cathy; and his mother, Molly. He was preceded in death by his parents, Bob and Allie, and his sister, Paula.

He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Private family services will be held at a later date.

Arrangements by Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

“ I just read this in shock! I grew up in the girl pack with the pack that Glen ran in. He was always so kind, quiet spoken, and thoughtful to us girls. Lots of good and crazy memories with him, and lots of shenanigans, too. You will be missed, my friend!

“Glen wasn't just a friend - he was a brother I grew up with. We didn't just fish together; we did life together. From the dumb stuff we laughed about as kids to real conversations we had as adults (Family stuff), he was always there. Those memories will always be there, and losing my brother this early is tough, full stop. You will always be remembered. RIP Brother.

“Glen was such a kind person. We were in many classes together from Lee Elementary through graduation at Eastmont. We had a chance to visit at our 50th class reunion. I reminded him that he was my first boyfriend (We were in the 5th grade). It is very clear from all the posts that Glen remained a kind person. My heart goes out to his family. Beth Brett Marker

“ Turned out Glen was never an only child. Bob and Allie had a whole neighborhood full of kids. Sagdals are always in our hearts.

“ I always got Glen to help me play some of the best pranks on my Mom. Boy did we laugh. He will be dearly missed.

“ Up well before dawn to be first at the launch, staying all day to find you're the last trailer in the parking lot was not unusual. Sunrise from a boat in the middle of a fishing trip will never be the same. God's arms hold you now. Tight lines and nothing lost at the net, my very special friend. Rest in peace, I will miss you!

“ We are so sorry. Glen’s parents, Bob and Allie, took me in like a son as a boy, and we became like brothers. We hunted, fished, skied, and did many other things outdoors. The happiest part of his life was when he found Tracie, who was clearly the love of his life. Rest in peace, my friend and brother.

“ Glen was the best at a lot of things; being a good friend was one of them. For the last 30 years, I was the beneficiary. It is with a heavy heart that we say goodbye. Rest in peace, brother.

I was deeply saddened to hear about Glen's passing. I'll never forget the day he took me fishing up by Wells Dam—it was one of the highlights of my life. I still remember catching that big salmon and how kind and patient he was throughout the day. Glen's generosity and warmth left a lasting impression on me, and he will be deeply missed. My thoughts are with his family and everyone who loved him.

Glen and I grew up together, sharing our young and adult lives as neighbors, classmates, roommates, sportsmen, and close friends. So many memories. I will remember him most as a stalwart friend and an honorable man. Rest in peace, Glen.
