

Glendora Nelson

March 20, 1925 - January 17, 2018

Glendora Nelson Jolly, 92, of East Wenatchee, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 17, 2018. She was born in Plano, IA, on March 20, 1925, to John R. and Carrie Ellen (Peppers) Bane. Along with siblings and parents, she spent her early years in Nebraska. They then moved to Buena, WA, and finally settled in the Wenatchee Valley.

She was a 50-plus-year resident of Peshastin, WA, and a 20-plus-year resident of East Wenatchee. She was also a 50-plus-year member of the Chumstick Grange in Leavenworth, WA, and an honorary life member of the USAF Air Defense Team. She married Victor E. Nelson, of Peshastin, on July 2, 1942, and they had two children: Karen and Ron. She was an assistant cook for the Peshastin-Dryden School District for many years, and also worked for several area warehouses. She loved collecting M&M figures, garage sales, and crocheting. She married Harvey Jolly on August 27 in the mid-1990s.

Glendora is survived by her husband, Harvey W. Jolly, of the home; daughter,

Karen

Kell of East Wenatchee, WA; brother, John Bane of East Wenatchee, WA; four grandchild: Keith Kell, of East Wenatchee, WA, Marina (Shane) Covey of Chelan, WA, and Misty (Chris) Diaz of Watsonville, CA; four great-grandchildren: Taylor Critchlow of Felton, CA, Cami Covey of Wenatchee, WA, Bailey (Sergio) Robles of Renton, WA, and Emily Diaz of Watsonville, CA; step-son, Woody (Sandy) Jolly of Laughlin, NV; step-daughter, Betty Mellee (Tim) Haisler of Bothell, WA; numerous step-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Victor E. Nelson; her parents; son, Ronald D. Nelson; sister, Ann Pulliam; and several nieces, aunts, and uncles.

The family wishes to thank the staff of Regency Wenatchee for their excellent care of Glendora.

At her request, there will be no services. Chapel of the Valley, Wenatchee, WA, is in charge of arrangements.
