“ Uncle Greg I miss you and love you so much. No matter how many times I moved or traveled, you were always a constant in my life that didn't change. You were always there as a source of joy. You always reminded me so much of Grandma Ruby and I loved hearing your voice. I loved how much you and my dad and Jack Jr looked alike. I have the best memories of years of my life at your home, shooting guns, me and Jack being mischievous and you catching us but still loving us. I am beyond grateful that I got to spend so much time with you in the end. I'm crushed that I moved up a year too late but grateful I was there at the end. I miss you so much and I hear your voice in my head like you're standing next to me. I'm so grateful that I had you in my life for 46 years. You and Aunt Chris mean the world to me. I can't imagine one of you without the other but I'm comforted that such a beautiful love existed between two humans and the two of you were blessed to find it. I don't want to let you go but your memories will live on through all of us who love you. Until we meet again, with love, your niece Heidi
