Henry Clayton "Hank" Sackman

May 28, 1923 ~ May 18, 2015

Henry "Hank" Sackman passed into the arms of our Lord in Wenatchee, WA on Monday, May 18, 2015. Henry was born to Edith and Henry Paul on May 28, 1923, in Buffalo, NY. He attended Technical High School and Syracuse College, before entering the Army in 1944 as 2nd Lieutenant. He earned his wings and shuttled and transported aircraft all over the U.S. before they were transported to Europe. He married Ruby in 1945, and had two daughters, Susan (Sanderson, Day) and Kathy (Daggett). He was a chief estimator for large construction firms in Buffalo, NY, Los Angeles, CA and Wenatchee, WA. Throughout his life, he participated in team and individual sports, especially loving handball and golf. He was a mason and he and Ruby travelled the world extensively.

He is survived by his daughters, Susan Day (Robert Day) and Kathy Daggett (Durland Daggett); his four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Pastor Steve Whitney of Calvary Bible Church will preside over the Funeral at Telford's Chapel of the Valley on Friday, May 22, 2015, at 10:30 a.m. A Graveside Service will follow at Wenatchee City Cemetery. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
