

Jack Darrell Frei

March 17, 1944 - January 15, 2010

Jack D. Frei died at the age of 65 Friday January 15, 2010 in his home peacefully surrounded by his immediate family. He had been battling cancer for the past 18 months.

Jack was born in Seattle, Washington March 17, 1944 to Harold and Thelma Frei (Kirby). He attended the University of Washington, played on the golf team and was always an avid "Dawg" fan. On January 8, 1977 he married his wife of 33 years, Pam Frei (Haskins), from Seattle, Washington. Survivors include his wife, son's Ryan & Travis Long, daughter Lindzee Frei, grand children Nathan, Cooper & Sydney Long and dog Maverick.

He was a 36-year member of the PGA and a local Golf Course Architect with his best known courses being Bear Creek CC, Echo Falls and Desert Canyon Golf Resort. He loved golf, his work and his family; he was a very passionate, caring and compassionate man.

Come celebrate Jack Frei's life on Thursday January 21, 2010 at 2:00 pm located at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Lynnwood, Washington with a reception following at Bear Creek Country Club. Visit telfordschapel.com for more information.