

Jacquelyn Jo Ann Boling

October 4, 1932 - April 30, 2015

Jacquelyn Jo Ann (Johnson) Boling, 82, went to be with her Lord on Thursday, April 30, 2015. Jacque was born Oct 4, 1932 in Wenatchee WA to Norris and Marjory Johnson.

She married Charles Ray Boling of Los Angeles CA on Jan 5, 1951 in Yuma AZ. They have 6 children; JoAnn Elaine Fox (Dennis) of Spokane WA, Barbara Lyn Bullis of Boise ID, Charles Anton Boling of Walla Walla WA, Dawna Lea Tillery (Eugene) of Lemoore CA, Kathy Sue Massagee (James) of Atlanta, GA and Sandra Lu Casimire (Russell) of Oak Harbor WA.

She was a dedicated military spouse who loved the military community.

Besides her husband she also had 2 children, 4 son in laws and 3 grandchildren in the Navy. She was proud of her volunteer service as a Grey Lady for the Red Cross at NAS Whidbey Island. She worked for Civil Service in the supply department as a customer service supervisor.

Jacque was a strong woman of faith who loved the Lord. She served as church secretary for both First Baptist Church in Oak Harbor WA and Foothills Four Square Church in Wenatchee WA where she touched many lives. She was also active in Women's Aglow. She led bible studies and prayer groups. She took seriously her calling as a "Watchmen on the Wall" (Isaiah 62:6-7). Anyone who met her experienced her gentle loving spirit and friends enjoyed her sense of humor. She was known for her love of quilting, tea parties and wearing hats. She loved history, especially her family history and the civil war era.

She loved her family more than anything, always showing support and unconditional love to her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She is survived in death by 1 aunt, 2 brothers, 6 children, 19 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her parents, her husband and one grandchild.

Memorial services will be held at Foothills Foursquare Church on Saturday May 9 at 2 PM.
