

James Blanchfield

April 2, 1958 - July 16, 2017

James "Kevin" Blanchfield, 59, of Chelan, WA, passed unexpectedly in the early morning hours on Sunday, July 16, 2017. He was born April, 2, 1958, in Wenatchee, WA, to Verlin E. Blanchfield and Ruth (Seyler) Blanchfield of Entiat, WA. Kevin was born and raised a cowboy, just like his dad, and he remained a cowboy throughout his life.

He had many horses of which the majority were paints. Horses were his passion.

Kevin attended school in Entiat until moving to Spanaway, WA, where he worked our dad's ranch, Clover Creek Stables.

After a few years, they packed up and headed to Portland, OR, where they opened the War Bonnet Riding Stables. It was during this period that he met his life partner, Cassie Hart. After many years in the Portland area, Kevin and Cassie moved to Chelan Falls, WA, where he worked with his sister at Arrowhead Riding Stables. They then moved to the Quiet Valley Ranch located off Antoine Creek Rd. This is where he remained for his last 20 years while raising horses. In 2015, a massive fire in the Antoine Creek area burned his home and he lost everything. Life wasn't easy, but Kevin always had a smile

share and maintained a positive attitude.

A Funeral Service for Kevin will be held at 1:00 p.m., on Saturday, July 29, 2017, at the Lake Chelan United Methodist Church, 206 N. Emerson St., in Chelan, WA. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.
