

James Henry Lagge

November 14, 1930 - February 4, 2017

James Henry Lagge, beloved husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, passed away February 4, 2017, after an extended illness in Chelan, WA. He was born to Henry and Rose Lagge on November 14, 1930, in Beulah, ND. He married Edith Ann Fischer on November 27, 1955. Jim served in the United States Air Force from 1951-1955 in Washington, DC, assigned to the National Security Agency. He and Edith moved to Chelan, WA, in 1955, where Jim opened and managed his barber shop for 40 years. Upon retirement, he continued for an extra year to make certain that his customers would have a qualified barber to replace him. Jim was an avid fisherman in Lake Chelan and surrounding lakes and streams. Jim loved to spend time with his family.

His surviving members are his wife, Edith; two sons: Rick of Chelan, WA, and Bruce (Janet) of Dallas, TX; three grandchildren: Brian of Chelan, WA, Samantha Bailey (Ryan) of Pullman, WA, and Julie Dial (Lane) of Trophy Club, TX; four great-grandchildren: Savannah, Holland, Avery, and Scarlet of Dallas, TX; one sister, Betty Kuk of Bend, OR; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Jim was a man of strong faith and fellowship. Memorial donations can be made to the Camas Meadows Bible Camp. A Memorial Service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 18, 2017, at the Living Stone Church in Chelan, WA. At a later date, a private interment will be held at the Fraternal Cemetery in Chelan, WA. Arrangements are assisted by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.
