“ My deepest sympathies and condolences to Al and your family. I have many memories of Jan, Walks at the park, bible study at your house, the two of you coming over for dinner and playing the piano with her at St Pauls.

She was a wonderful lady, and we will see her again in the Resurrection!!

Love,

Dean and Lorna Osborne

“ When my brother and I were young, Jan would visit us from time to time, being a piano player she would sit down with my brother and I and sing/play "Are you Mine" of course we had to sing along. That song which is old and forgotten will always remain with me. Stevie Nicks has a version of it on "Youtube" and it is done so beautiful.
