

Jasmine M. Cooper

February 23, 2000 - February 7, 2022

Jasmine Marie Cooper passed away on February 7th, 2022 at Providence Regional Medical Center. She was born at Wenatchee Valley Hospital on February 23, 2000. She grew up in Wenatchee with her family. Jasmine Marie Cooper was the oldest child of Narcili Berry and she was very close to her brother, Marshall Madrigal.

Jasmine excelled in school. She graduated from Wenatchee Valley College and was pursuing her bachelor's degree in Psychology at Central Washington University. She wanted to work with children. Jasmine was adventurous and free spirited, always wanting to do things her own way. She was determined to succeed in life. Jasmine enjoyed outdoor activities and hiking was one of her favorite things to do. People loved being around her because of her kindness and caring heart.

Jasmine is preceded in death by her grandfather, Narciso Dayao, and grandmother, Librada Richardson, on her mother's side. Arlis and Willie Cooper preceded her on her father's side. She is survived by her parents, Tim Cooper and Narcili Berry, brother, Marshall Madrigal and other siblings from her father's side, uncles, aunts, cousins, nephew and nieces.

Services will be held this Friday, February 18, 2022, 2:30pm at Chapel of the Valley, 378 Eastmont Ave., East Wenatchee; with viewing from 1:00 to 4:30; funeral service to begin at 2:30.

Celebration of Life immediately following at Makers Coffee Roasters and Event Place, 85 9th St NE, East Wenatchee.

Arrangements entrusted to Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.