

Jean Schall

June 4, 1943 - July 13, 2014

Jean Schall, 71, passed away Sunday, July 13, 2014, at Central Washington Hospital in Wenatchee. She was born June 4, 1943, to Norma and Happy Logelin in Noonan, ND. In 1961, she married Leonard Schall and together they had four children. They made their home in Minot, ND until 1966, when they moved their family to Tacoma, WA. In 1971, they came to Wenatchee, WA, as the result of a mass layoff at Boeing. Jean enjoyed every craft imaginable and did most of them extremely well. In time, ceramics became her favorite and she blessed many family and friends with her creations. Leonard passed away on July 20, 1990. After his death, she started selling Avon products and made many friends through her job. When she retired from Avon in 2007, the Wenatchee Valley Senior Center became her second home. It was a place where she visited and dined with new friends every Monday through Friday, until she was too ill to do so.

Jean is survived by her children, Wendy (David) Lane, Steve Schall, Mike (Pam) Schall, and Jeff (Jacobi) Schall; nine grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and husband.

A Graveside Service will be held at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 19, 2014, at Evergreen Memorial Park in East Wenatchee. Refreshments to follow at Wenatchee Valley Senior Center in Wenatchee. Arrangements made by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

Tribute Wall

“ *To Mike and his family,
So sorry for the loss of your Mom. I think it was about a year and half ago I saw her at Dennys and sat by her and had a nice visit with her. She looked so good and seemed so happy being active at the Senior Center. I pray for your family during this difficult time.*
Ernestine

---

Ernestine Wisemore - July 18, 2014 at 07:28 PM