

Jeffrey Fiebelkorn

June 6, 1960 - July 24, 2023

Jeff Fiebelkorn died at home in East Wenatchee, at the age of 63 on July 24, 2023. He was born on June 6, 1960, to Marvin and Sophie Fiebelkorn in Wenatchee, WA, the third of four siblings.

Jeff grew up surrounded by a large extended family. He enjoyed skiing and everything about cars and motorcycles. Like a true Wenatchee kid, he spent summers picking apples in his uncle's orchard and was never short on mischief or shenanigans.

He graduated from Wenatchee High School in 1978 and after various jobs, went on to work for Pipkin Construction as a truck driver for more than 25 years. He was gifted in building and fixing things. He combined two cars to make one functioning one for his niece and was always the go-to guy for car problems since his tool collection was extensive. When his family decided to make homemade gifts for each other one Christmas, he pleasantly surprised everyone by welding a beautiful bird feeder for his brother in law. He will be remembered as a soft-spoken and kind son, brother, uncle, and friend.

Jeff is survived by his mother, Sophie (of Wenatchee), brother Mike (Robyn) of Spokane, sisters

Tami (Mark) and JuLee of Wenatchee, nieces Heidi, Kasey (Alex) of Spokane, Rachel (Alex) of Renton, nephew Paul (Michelle) of Seattle, and eight grand nieces and nephews.

A Memorial service will be held at Grace Lutheran Church in Wenatchee, WA on Saturday, July 29, 2023 at 11am.

“ We were known as the Three Amigos! (Trouble) Jeff, myself and Scott Parkins.
We did everything together. I'm absolutely crushed that he is not here anymore 💔
