Jerald R. Greenwood

Wenatchee, WA

Jerald R. Greenwood, 74, passed away Sunday, November 9, 2014, at home with his family by his side. He was a graduate of Wenatchee High School, class of 1958. He served his country in Germany as a Specialist 4th Class in the Army, beginning in 1959. After the service, he worked for Ederer Crane and retired after 34 years, as an electrician and crane engineer. He loved helping his dad, Ralph Greenwood, work in the cherry orchard on Western Avenue in Wenatchee. He also loved working on his many cars and spent a lot of time in his garden. Upon retirement, he spent most of his time in the Philippines, where he met his wife, Gemma.

He is survived by his wife, Gemma; daughter, Erica and son, Eugene Balais; sons, Mike, Matthew and Jerad Greenwood; sisters, Bonnie Blackburn and Rita Baugh; loving step-sisters, Juanita Greenwood, Linda Stirn, Debbie Largent, Shelly Ehrenberg, Shawna Shaw and Sheryl Sanford; and five grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ralph and Erma Greenwood; and brother, Bill Greenwood.

There will be a Celebration of Life on Saturday, November 15, 2014, at 3:00 p.m. at his home in Wenatchee.
