“ I have known Jessica since Kindergarten; she was always super nice, smart, and down to earth. I am saddened to hear of her passing to say the least. Prayers for her family and all those mourning their loss.

“ Jessica was one of my good friends in Jr. High. There was a black widow spider on the tile wall of the girls locker room. Everyone freaked out. Jess whips out a giant can of Aquanet and a lighter and torches the thing. Most bad-ass move my 14 year old self ever witnessed.
