

Jessica Renea Markie

July 28, 1979 - February 9, 2010

On February 9, 2010, Jessica lost her battle with Cystic Fibrosis. She was born in Mansfield, OH on July 28, 1979, and then later moved to Washington with her mother, Barb and brother, Steve. She was a very precious, sweet, caring and loving young lady. She never complained about being ill or ever felt sorry for herself. She was a fighter right until the end. Jessica graduated from West Auburn High School in 1997, and went on to attend Wenatchee Valley College, where she got her degree as a Certified Medical Assistant. After getting her degree, she began working at Wenatchee Valley Medical Center in a float position, rotating through many different departments. She was then offered a job in the Neurology Department, where she worked for Dr. Ward, a Neurosurgeon, which is where she worked until January 2010.

Jessica is survived by her fiancé, Nathan Sherwood; her mother, Barbara Markie; brother, Steven Markie; grandparents, Al and Marilyn Jones; and her "other" mother, Marci Sherwood.

Jess was an angel that God blessed us with. Her time here was short, but the impact she made on all of us who had the pleasure to know her, will last forever. Breathe freely baby girl and keep smiling. We will miss you, but will keep you in our hearts forever. We love you, baby girl.
