

John H. Goss

January 16, 2009

John H. "Pal" Goss, 74, of East Wenatchee, died Friday, Jan. 16, 2009. He was a longtime Wenatchee Valley resident. He had worked as a disc jockey for KMEL in Wenatchee, a cameraman for KREM and KSPS in Spokane, and most recently as a real estate agent in the Okanogan and Wenatchee valleys.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Goss of East Wenatchee; his children, John Goss Jr. of Okanogan, James Goss of Honaunau, Hawaii, Paul Goss of Wenatchee, and Laura Schultz of Seattle; his sisters, Marguerite Persson of Berwyn, Alberta, Canada, and Trudie Jo Rayburn of Reserve, N.M.; and his brothers, Bill Goss of Burien and Bob Goss of Kamloops, B.C.

A funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday at Eastmont Baptist Church, 400 S. Kentucky Ave., in East Wenatchee. Concluding services and interment will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the Malott Cemetery.

Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee