

Johnny J. McElhaney

October 11, 1936 - July 20, 2018

Johnny James McElhaney, 81, passed away on July 20, 2018, at Central Washington Hospital in Wenatchee, WA. John was born in Artesia, NM, on October 11, 1936, the second of five children. He joined the U.S. Navy in 1954, where he finished high school and trained in several special trades; he served in the U.S. Navy for 13 years. After his discharge in 1967, John became a general contractor, which brought him to Wenatchee in 1989, where he met Linda Farrens Norris and they married in May of 1990. He enjoyed fishing, camping, and square dancing with the Appleland Promenaders.

John is survived by his wife, Linda; brother, Lee; son, Mike; daughter, Pamala; step-daughters: Sherri Gronlund, Tina Thomas, and Amy Mains; step-sons: Kenny McElhaney, Curtis Adamson, and Charlie JA McElroy; ten grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Lois McElhaney; son, Johnny; brothers: Ray Prewitt, and Ed McElhaney; and sister, Jean Christ.

Please join us for an informal Celebration of Life on Saturday, August 11, 2018, at 2:00 p.m., at Eastmont Community Park, Gazebo #3, East Wenatchee, WA. Arrangements assisted by Chapel of the Valley, Wenatchee, WA.