

Joseph Harold Carl

January 28, 1938 - September 3, 2014

Joseph Harold Carl was born to Floyd and Marie Carl in Wenatchee, WA on January 28, 1938. He was raised in East Wenatchee, WA by Cy and Rea Keener with his sister, Donna. Joe served in the Navy on the USS Platte, before marrying his love, Mary L. Tibbs, in 1960. Joe was the Chief of Police for the East Wenatchee Police Department from 1964 to 1971. He also worked for the Douglas County PUD, Coca Cola, Asamera at The Cannon Mine and Selland Construction before retiring. Joe was a volunteer firefighter for the East Wenatchee Fire Department for 30 years. Joe and Mary raised their daughter, Cheryl, in East Wenatchee. They enjoyed camping and Joe was an avid fisherman. He loved the Seahawks and the Mariners and always watched their games. Joe was a member of the Eastmont Community Church and he always looked forward to his time there with friends and family. Like many fisherman, he was a great story teller. Some stories he told so much, he believed them to be true. Some we will never know if they were true, but this we do know, if you called and wanted to talk to Grandma, it would cost you either a pickle or a nickel. Joe passed away on September 3, 2014.

His brother, Neil Richman, preceded Joe in death. He is survived by his wife, Mary L. Carl of East Wenatchee, WA; his daughter, Cheryl M. Olson of East Wenatchee, WA; his sister, Donna Gills of Spokane, WA; his granddaughters, Candi Hull Humphrey of East Wenatchee, WA and Kasey Henderson of Sheppard Air Force Base, TX; and five great-grandchildren.

Joe had a servant's heart and was always there to help someone in need, without question. He will be dearly missed.

Graveside Service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Park Cemetery in East Wenatchee, WA on Friday, September 12, 2014, at 11:00 a.m. In lieu of flowers, the family encourages donations to the Alzheimer's Association.
