

Joseph B. Winter

November 21, 1935 - July 7, 2015

Joseph B. Winter

Wenatchee, WA

Joseph B. Winter passed away in his home on July 7, 2015, in Wenatchee, WA, surrounded by family and loved ones. He was 79.

Joe was born on November 21, 1935, in Seattle, WA to his parents, Thomas R. and Margaret Winter. He graduated from Bellevue High School and served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. He married Mary Jesslyn Warwick in 1961. The Winters moved to Wenatchee, where Joseph worked as an independent insurance agent and together they raised a family of four. Joseph loved to spend time with his family, fish, play golf, just about any outdoor activity, tinker with his electronics, and he enjoyed his cabin on the Wenatchee River. He was a great family man and loving father with a passion for music. He enjoyed being a member of the St. Joseph's Church choir and participated as a chorus member in a number of Wenatchee Music Theater productions and Apollo Club.

He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Mark and Helvi Winter of Kent, WA; his daughter, Colleen Entrikin, of Phoenix, AZ; his daughter and son-in-law, Janet and John Krstulich of Missoula, MT; his daughter, Julie Winter of Lynnwood, WA; and ten grandchildren, Ian and Eric Winter, Joe, Alex, and Amii Entrikin, Ryan, Jeff, Kyle, and Mark Krstulich and Soren Miller.

A Memorial Mass will be held in his honor on Wednesday, July 15, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. at St. Joseph Catholic Church, with a reception to follow in the church hall. All are welcome to attend and celebrate his life.
