November 27, 1941 - April 4, 2010

Judyth Nerene "Judy" Nikolas passed away on April 4, 2010, after a long, tough battle with liver disease. Judy was born on November 27, 1941, in Susanville, CA, to Thomas and Nerene Bennett. She grew up in Spokane, WA and attended North Central High School. In Spokane, she met Martin Wold, to whom she was married to for 25 years. Marty and Judy moved to Dayton, WA, where they had a son, Darin. From Dayton, they moved to Colville, WA, where her son, Mike was born. Next stop, the family moved to Wenatchee, where they would finally call home. Judy worked for the Employment Security Department for over 25 years. In 1990, Judy married Stephen Nikolas. Judy loved to travel, spend time working in her yard and attend meetings with her sorority sisters. She also cherished all the time she could spend with any of her nine grandchildren. Judy had a very "social" quality and loved to meet new people.

Judy was preceded in death by her father, Tom Bennett; and her husband, Steve Nikolas. She is survived by her mother, Nerene Bennett; sister and brother-in-law, Janis and Jerry Britton; son and daughter-in-law, Darin and Karen Wold; son and daughter-in-law, Mike and Christine Wold; two stepsons, Mat Nikolas and Mike Nikolas; one step-daughter, Deanna Nikolas; two nephews, John and Jason Britton; nine grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.
