

Katherine Belt

February 10, 1927 - March 2, 2012

Katherine Jeanne Belt died on March 2, 2012, at Blossom Valley in Wenatchee, WA. Jeanne was born to Kenneth Campbell and Bertha (Carrico-Clifford) Campbell on February 10, 1927, in Moscow, ID. In 1941, the family of four girls and two boys moved to Buckley, WA and later, Seattle, WA. During her long life, Jeanne followed a variety of jobs. She retired from Greyhound Lines after 29 years of selling tickets. She left a trail of friends along the way, as her work took her to Oregon, California, Arizona, Nevada, Texas and Utah. That is how she earned the nickname "The Happy Wanderer." She moved to Wenatchee in 2009, to be closer to family. At her home in Blossom Valley, she found many new friends and activities to make her "senior years" more pleasant.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Marjorie Ayres; two brothers, Rex and Glenn Shinn; and her parents. Jeanne is survived by her sisters, Ethel Salter of East Wenatchee and Peggy Zelda Carrico of Moscow, ID; niece, Arline (Dan) Purcell of Cashmere; grand-nephews, Eric (Lacey) Purcell of East Wenatchee and Michael (Adriane) Cantrell of Wenatchee and Leonard (Roberta) Gustin of St. Maries, ID, who have given Jeanne extra love and help in the past three years. There are numerous nieces and nephews across the states who have special memories of Auntie Jeanne. Also, very special friends, Carmen, Rex and Holly Gallaher and Rhonda Bellinger.

At Jeanne's request, there will be No Services. Her family extends a "Big Thank You" to the whole staff of Blossom Valley and the wonderful team of Hospice, for the love and care you gave to Jeanne. Arrangements by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
