

Kathleen Strehle

February 9, 1921 - September 1, 2011

Kathleen Strehle, 90, a longtime Wenatchee Valley resident, died Thursday, September 1, 2011. She was born February 9, 1921, in Peshastin, WA to Myrtle and Harry Baker. She was raised and educated there, attended business college in Seattle and worked in Seattle for several years. She married Rudolph Strehle in 1942, living in various towns due to his work in construction. He preceded her in death in 1971. Kathleen worked at Hanford during the War years. She was an employee of Central Washington Hospital from 1974 to 1985.

Kathleen is survived by her three sons, Steven of Kirkland, Douglas of East Wenatchee and Daniel of Vancouver; and two sisters, Elizabeth McLaughlin of Yakima and McXie Brooks of Inglewood, CA.

At her request, there will be No Services. Arrangements by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.