“ My memory of Lester is that he was a very evil person who not only beat on his wife many times and broke bones, left stitches on my moms head trying to escape his abuse , he also beat on his step daughters,Leaving many welts and bruises, and a lot of emotional scars leaving them to move out as soon as they could. Even damaging their cars. killing our pet rabbits by using a hammer on them. His family believed he was good, if they had only asked other people then they would also see the hell he made everyone's lives. Like my late sister Lisa said -she would light the match. He has finally gone to hell where he belongs
