“ Lila has been my health insurance customer since 2010. I always looked forward to doing annual reviews with her. She and I just "clicked" and I always set my appointments as the last one of the day because I knew it would be so pleasant. She always had tea or coffee ready and a little snack and she made sure the table was clean so we could spread out our paperwork. I saved time for her to talk about her children and grandchildren since she deeply loved them. I knew she had a wide circle of friends since people would call when I was there, but she graciously told them she was busy. I admired her energy and she valued my time. I missed seeing her this year due to Covid. I am so sorry I won't see her this fall. I will miss her. Gaylen Willett
