

Lois Ann McKenna

August 20, 1938 - June 21, 2016

Lois Ann (Bagwell) McKenna peacefully left this earth on June 21, 2016, to start her eternal life with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Lois was born to Thomas O. Bagwell and Nancy (Anna Bess) Williamson Bagwell of Stayman Flats (Chelan, WA.) on August 20, 1938, and was raised there alongside the great Columbia River, where at times, she and her other family members would have to use a row boat to cross the Columbia in order to attend school. She graduated from Chelan High School in 1957, and then in January of 1959, she married Laurel R. McKenna, making a new home at Stayman Flats, where she worked in the orchards, packing sheds and devoted herself to raising a family. Lois was blessed with four daughters from her marriage that later ended in divorce. Lois along with her family, moved to Wenatchee, WA in 1968, where she operated a daycare and cared for many children out of her home. Lois later went back to work in the fruit industry for Taplett's, Wenoka and Chief Wenatchee, until her health forced her to retire.

She enjoyed her retirement and loved her pets, the outdoors, music, flowers, needle work and arts and crafts, but most of all, she loved her grandchildren:

Jaime Gonzalez, Robbie Gonzalez, Alicia Gonzalez, Daniel Gonzalez, Megan Akin and Lucas McKenna.

Lois was preceded in death by infant daughter, Cheryl McKenna; her parents, Tom and Nancy Bagwell; and her sister, Sharron Bagwell. She is survived by her brother, Daniel Bagwell (Lorraine) of Seattle WA; her sister, Elizabeth Swift of Wenatchee, Wa; three daughters: Jean McKenna of East Wenatchee, WA, Kathy

Gonzalez and Shelley Akin (Greg), both of Wenatchee, WA; her six grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

Lois was dearly loved by her family and friends, she will be greatly missed.

Please join us for a Celebration of Life service to honor Lois on August 20, 2016 at 5:30 p.m. at King's Orchard Fellowship Hall, 1610 Orchard Street, Wenatchee, WA. A light meal will be served.
