

Lorene "Lorry" Heck

January 21, 1947 - October 10, 2021

Lorene (Lorry) Heck, 74, a long-time resident of the Wenatchee area, went to be with the Lord on Sunday, October 10, 2021.

She is survived by sister, Sarah Carnahan; brother, Bill Hughes; son, Robert Crowe; 3 step-daughters; 1 step-son; 3 grandchildren; 2 great grandsons and husband Bernie.

Visitation will be from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. on Friday, October 15, with service following at 3 p.m., Chapel of the Valley, 378 Eastmont Avenue, East Wenatchee. A reception will follow at the Heck residence.

Tribute Wall

RF

“ Sorry to hear of the passing of Lori. I worked with her in the 1980s at Central Washington Hospital in the business office. Fond memories of times together. Remember attending several office parties at her home in East Wenatchee. After she left employment with CWH, I lost track of her whereabouts. She talked positive about her son and husband while we worked side by side. May her family be comforted and feel at peace.

Ruth Fisher - October 13, 2021 at 08:15 PM

SH

“ My Sincere Condolences for the loss of your Dear Lorene. The Angels have her in their care now. We will miss your company and your Spirit will live on amongst us. Love, Sher (Harden)

Sher Harden - October 12, 2021 at 09:57 PM

SH

“ My Sincere Condolences for the loss of your Dear Lorene. The Angels have her in their care now. We will miss your company and your Spirit will live on amongst us. Love, Sher (Harden)

Sher Harden - October 12, 2021 at 09:51 PM