

Lori Teresa Lange

June 24, 1959 - September 10, 2016

Our much loved wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend, passed away on a sunny Saturday afternoon, September 10, 2016. Lori was born June 24, 1959 in Wenatchee, WA . She attended Sunnyslope Elementary School, Orchard Junior High School and Wenatchee High School, graduating in 1978. As a teenager, she worked at the Anita Shop in the Wenatchee Valley Mall. In 1979, she married the love of her life, Rick Lange. For their "honeymoon," they traveled the Alcan Highway to Alaska, where they lived for two years before returning to Wenatchee. She then worked at Sears in the appliance department, Health food store, Century 21 selling real estate and the Igloo Tavern. Her best loved job came to be at Mission View School as a para-professional. She loved and cared for "her" kids there for nearly ten years. In 1994, she met the other love of her life when their son, Adam, was born. Together, they loved camping, boating and fishing. Lori also liked to garden, especially growing vegetables. She is survived by her loving husband, Rick; her son, Adam; her mother, Yvonne Truman; two brothers: Russ (Nan), Jerry (Adair); sister, Lynda McDougall (Scott); nephews: Matt (Darcy) and Tyler (Katlin); mother-in-law, Sally McAdoo; sisters-in-law: Patti and Paula; and brothers-in-law: Bob and Josh and their families.
