

Lorna V. Wiley

January 4, 1920 - October 25, 2014

Lorna Virginia Wiley was born January 4, 1920 to Grady and Eva (Dutton) Longacre. She graduated from Waterville High School in 1939 and she married Robert "Bob" Wiley of Waterville on January 11, 1941. Over the years she worked as a bookkeeper for the Waterville Grange Supply and Webb's Dress Shop. She was also Chief Pie Baker for Joel's Sandwich Shop. Lorna was an active square dancer throughout the valley, dancing well into her 80's, teaching dancing and even holding dances in her basement with the love of her life, Bob. This active lady was a member of the Pamona, Waterville, and East Wenatchee Granges and was even recognized for 50 years of service. She is survived by: her brother; Arnold (Carolyn), daughter; Myrna, and daughter-in-law; Tona Culver (Bob), grandchildren; Ken Warner, Joelene (Todd) Young, Crystal (Kevin) Overbay, Tasha (Jim) Rathbun, Jaime (David) Ruddell, great grandchildren, who loving referred to her as GGM and grandmatia; Ashley, Cece, Mihkaela, Taylor, Kiffen, and Abby, as well as numerous nieces, nephews and cousins as well as many special friends; Linda and Jeff Waddell, Lyla Becker, Bud and Joann Dunagan, her Cody kids, Bob and Jill Wolf and many others to numerous to mention. She was preceded in death by: her parents; her son, Ed; husband, Bob; three brothers, Wesley, Gene and Don; a sister, Claudia; and a son-in-law, Joel Warner

Tribute Wall

“ Your journey here is ended and now your in heaven, dancing away with the love of your life. Rest in peace sweet Wenatchee mother!!!

Jill Wolf - November 10, 2014 at 11:18 AM