

Loye Wayne Owens

May 1, 1941 - July 6, 2019

Our Amazing father, Loye Wayne Owens, at age 78, was reunited with his beloved family and joined God's army of angels. He must be in God's army because he remains the single strongest, bravest, most honorable person I've ever known.

He was born in Newburg, AZ, on May 1, 1941, and moved to the Wenatchee Valley at age six. He really did live life to the fullest. He lived hard, loved hard, played hard, made you laugh hard, worked hard, and when life got tough, he just got tougher.

The thing he loved most was family and the things he loved doing most were: hunting, fishing, camping, picnicking, horseback riding, and snowmobiling with family. He was proud to be a Native American Indian and if you were his friend, you were his brother.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Etta and Rachio Owens; four sisters: Lola Palmer, Fay McCarty, Jean Turner, and Donni Owens, and one brother, Travis Owens. He is survived by his son, Troy Owens; daughter Tracy Wheeler; four grandchildren: Zachary, Rachel, Aaron, and Seara; and five great-grandchildren: Ava, Lola, Pierce, Rex, and Uriah.
