

Lyle Day

May 27, 1942 - October 2, 2021

Lyle Day, 75, of East Wenatchee passed away early on Sunday, September 19, 2021. He was born September 14, 1946 to Glen and Dorothy (Malone) Day. He grew up in Cashmere and Peshastin-Dryden where he helped his dad with their orchard and farm. Lyle graduated from Peshastin-Dryden High School in 1964. After that he spent time working in construction over in the Seattle area before attending WVC where he was drafted to the army in 1966.

Upon his return home he began working in the floor covering business for Norris Floor Covering. Lyle married Charlene Wright April 19, 1969. After the dissolution of that marriage Lyle married Jackie Taplett in East Wenatchee on June 18, 1977. Lyle had a strong work ethic and became a self-employed carpenter in 1980. When he wasn't working he had a passion for the outdoors; working his small orchard, hunting, and fishing. He was always helping others; with their yards, cars, and snow removal. Lyle had a deep love for his family. He looked forward to his weekly breakfasts with his friends and family. What made him most proud was being a "Papa" and the time he spent with his grandkids- teaching and playing chess and card games with them.

Survivors include his wife Jackie, daughters Lisa Lease of Auburn; Donelle Giese of Wenatchee; son Steve Day of Wenatchee; sisters Joanne Wallace and Lynn Bryant of East Wenatchee; Jan Kelso of Wenatchee; Jill Pflugrath of Arlington; brothers Larry Day of East Wenatchee; Dan Day of Dryden; grandchildren: Brandon, Kyle, and Kaden Lease, Isaac, Elena, Levi, Genesis, and Boaz Day, Benjamin, Karl, and Evelyn Giese; and one great grandchild on the way. He was preceded in death by his parents and niece.

A celebration of life service will be held Sunday, October 10th at Pybus Event Center from 2-4pm with Pastor Tim Wilbur officiating. Arrangements are by Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.

Arrangements assisted by Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.