

Lynda Lyons

March 22, 1939 - December 15, 2022

Lynda Lyons, 83, of East Wenatchee Wa. passed away peacefully at home on Thursday, December 15, 2022. She was born on March 22, 1939, in Brawley Ca., to Ellick Lynn and Eleanor Faye Davis.

Lynda was never afraid of an adventure or to step out into new things. As a young woman she worked at Lockheed in California, also over the years she worked in hospitality business, retail and at the age of 40 went back to college to gain an AA degree in accounting. She moved up to Alaska in 1981 living in Thorne Bay and Ketchikan. She worked for the school district and did two terms as the Mayor of Thorne Bay. After her retirement in 2006 she returned to the Wenatchee Valley.

She loved to travel, go camping and fishing, crochet and what we fondly call “hunting and gathering” aka shopping! One of her biggest travel highlights is when she took a trip to the Mediterranean with a tour group and visited places from Biblical history in Greece and Turkey.

Lynda is preceded in death by her parents and husband Neil.

She is survived by her brother Sam (Debbie) Davis, her children James Wesson, Jerry Wesson, Jay Wesson, Tami (Jim) Demers, Ann (Mike) McKim, and John (Gina) Carson. Niece Amy Davis and nephew Nick (Erika) Davis. Twelve grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.
