

Margaret A. Bartram

April 30, 1937 - May 4, 2018

Margaret A. Bartram went to be with the Lord, Friday, May 4, 2018. Margaret was born April 30, 1937, to Blaine and Leona Holt in Lockney, TX. Margaret was a big sports fan and loved watching all sports, especially football and baseball. She enjoyed playing basketball in school, in her younger years, where she met Jerry Bartram in the seventh grade. Jerry and Margaret married in 1954, in New Mexico, at the age of 16 and 17. They farmed in Lockney, TX, where they had two sons and one daughter. In 1968, they moved to East Wenatchee, WA, where they owned and operated an apple orchard. Margaret loved the Lord very much. She was a longtime member at Wenatchee Valley Baptist Church and later at Eastmont Baptist Church. She was very involved in both churches, serving as a Sunday School teacher and was a board member for Christian Women's Organization. She was very crafty and loved to sew, always making something for her family or Sunday School ladies. She formally retired from Sunday School teaching after 56 years, but continued to stay involved in church activities. Margaret was loved by many people, and she truly enjoyed her time spent with all of her family and close friends.

Margaret is survived by her husband, Jerry; daughter, Jodie Moore of East Wenatchee, WA, grandchildren: Danielle Harum (Nathan Heath) of East Wenatchee, WA, Brad Moore (Nicole Moore) of Moses Lake, WA, and Maggie Bartram of Plano, TX; great-grandchildren: Shane, Kylee, Urijah, and Riley.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Blaine and Leona Holt; sisters: Shirley Green, and VerdaMae Enloe; brother, Gary Holt; sons: Chris and Tim Bartram; and son-in-law, Dan Moore.

Services will be held on Thursday, May 10, 2018, at 10:30 a.m., at Eastmont Baptist Church, 400 S. Kentucky Ave, East Wenatchee, WA. Memorial donations may be made to Eastmont Baptist Church. Chapel of the Valley, Wenatchee, WA, is in charge of the arrangements.
