

Mark David Hannah

February 18, 1976 - November 22, 2016

Mark David Hannah, after a courageous four year fight with cancer, said goodbye on November 22, 2016. Mark was born February 18, 1976 in Honolulu, HI.

At the age of eight, he was diagnosed with leukemia. After two years, he successfully went into remission. He graduated from Wenatchee High School in 1994. Two years later he earned a Diesel Mechanics Degree from Skagit Valley

Community College. He loved the outdoors and his time in the Entiat Valley, when he worked for the Forest Service. After nine years with the United States

Postal Service, he was diagnosed with a brain tumor. Because of his medical condition, he was forced to leave a place he loved and many friends in the Methow Valley.

He is survived by his ten year old daughter, Faith Hannah; parents, Robert and

Barbara Hannah; brother, Craig (Betsy) Hannah; nephew, Grey Hannah; niece,

Piper Hannah; many aunts, uncles, cousins; and life-time friends: Kevin and Valerie Carney.

A Memorial Service to celebrate the life of Mark Hannah will be held at New Song Community Church on Saturday, December 3, 2016, at 1:30 p.m.
