

Mary Cazzanigi Vance

April 27, 1945 - October 8, 2024

Mary, the third of six children, was born to Jack and Ruth Kearny on April 27, 1945, in Seattle, WA.

In her teens, Mary alternated between Seattle and Snoqualmie Pass, where the family moved in the late 1950s. There, they built and operated Conifer Lodge and Basketball School. Mary graduated from Holy Names High School in Seattle while staying with her Grandma Sifferman, (Ruth's mother).

With husband, Dan Cazzinigi, they raised their family in East Wenatchee. They were involved in many successful business ventures, including hair care services and product sales. Dan passed away in 2001.

Mary later married Dan Vance, and they spent many active years living at Lake Chelan in the summer and Florence, AZ in the winter. Mary was very outgoing and developed many strong lifetime friendships wherever she was, but her most cherished times were those spent with family.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, Jack & Ruth Kearny, and husband Dan Cazzinigi. She is survived by her husband Dan Vance; children, Greg Cazzinigi, Brad Cazzinigi (wife, Rebecca), and Tony Cazzinigi (wife, Isis); 3 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren; brothers, Stephen Kearny, Christopher Kearny (wife Val), John Kearny (wife Anna), Mark Kearny and Matthew Kearny (wife Marjorie), and many nieces and nephews.
