“ One of my favorite memories of visiting Mary was watching my kids disappear into her toy room, seemingly for hours, and always being surprised at finding something in there that they hadn't seen before. Rest in peace, Mary.

Sending my sympathy for your mom. I remember her lively laughter and smile and that is about 58 years ago. I think I got all of your names correct but I will share these pictures with my mom to be sure. They will make her cry but they will be tears of friendship.

I have the best memories of playing at your house while our Moms solved the worlds problems over a pot of coffee. Sending you all much love!
