

Mary Jo Kuechmann

December 15, 1933 - December 1, 2025

Mary Jo Kuechmann, born in 1933 in Wenatchee, Washington, passed away peacefully on December 1, 2025.

Wenatchee was her home from the very beginning, and it remained forever close to her heart. Mary Jo was raised in Wenatchee and lived here until leaving to attend Washington State University, where she met the love of her life, Keith Kuechmann. They were married in 1954, beginning a lifelong partnership built on love, faith, and devotion. Throughout their marriage, Keith's career relocated them several times, and Mary Jo embraced each new place and season with grace. In 1992, they retired and returned to Wenatchee, the place they had always called home.

Mary Jo was a devoted wife to Keith, a loving mother to her son, Tim, and her daughter, Linda, and a proud grandmother to five grandchildren whom she adored. Family was central to her life, and she poured her heart into caring for those she loved.

She was serious about her faith and was a devoted Christian who met many people along life's journey who became cherished friends. She lived with humility and sincerity, loving her family with her whole heart and reflecting her faith through kindness, compassion, and generosity.

A celebration of life is planned for May 9th, 2026, at Saddlerock Church, 1400 S. Miller St, Wenatchee, WA 98801. In lieu of flowers, donations in her honor may be made to Seattle Children's Hospital.
