“ Mike was there when I met my wife. It was a Friday. Mike and I decided to celebrate the end of a week of classes with some beers at the local hotspot. There was music, beer, and a lot of people. Mike convinced me it would be a good idea to ask one of the girls at the table next to us to dance. I ended up marrying the girl I asked. Mikes support helped a shy guy like me to take the first step. Thanks Mike.
