“ From the first year out of high school 1971 when Kim and Bill shared an Apt. on Alaska Street we became friends. At times drifting apart and yet staying in touch. Just before he Married Terrie I was having a hard time, and his visit with me played a part of my pathway of defending the Native americans. He and terry made their home in Oklahoma where the lord put his hand over their satey. When she passed we had fallen out of touch. A Christmas Card from 3 years before kept turning up. One day while I was trying to get things in order that card kept turning up. But what made me think I should write was when it flew off that stack of mail. I sat it down and started to go on to another task when I got this strong feeling that I needed to write them. Time passed and the letter did not come back so I figured maybe it was lost. Then almost 3 months later a heart felt message in a letter came from Kim. After that most of our contact was by phone. He worked a night shift as a watchman and in that shift I am awake most nights. So many stories were shared.. Kim was a honest and one truthful man. I as many others wait for that day when the great words of the maker of this word are fulfilled, and we all meet again.

“ My name is Doug Stolz and I've known Kym for more than 40 years. Kym was an outstanding human being who was with me thru thick and thin. I met kym thru a fellow brother in Christ Joel Ingram. Joel, Kym and myself were inseparable till Joel's passing . Kym and I stayed in touch until his recent passing may 14th. Anytime through out my adult life when I was in need he was always there for me. I learned many lessons thru Kym's friendship with me. He taught me what a loyal true friend should be. Of all the men on this planet he is the only man besides Joel that I trusted with my life. I enjoyed sharing countless stories about his prison ministry and the people he shared Christ with. Every time I try to begin to mourn for his loss I find myself overwhelmed with the fact that he is in a better place. If there were anyone that preceded him in heaven it was him. kym was a servant of God here and if there are tiers in heaven he us top tier because of his humility and selfless actions. He was only one of a handful of people that I counted as my closest friend. My deepest condolences to all of his survivor's. He will be sorely missed by me and everyone who knew him. Love Doug
