

Nick Siltman

December 7, 1959 - November 14, 2022

December 7, 1959 – November 14, 2022

Nick Stuart Siltman, 62, of Cashmere, WA passed away peacefully on November 14, 2022 with his loving wife, Sabra by his side.

He was born in Omak on December 7, 1959 to Herbert and Marilyn Siltman. He grew up on ranches and rode horses. While growing up, he rodeoed as a bull rider. He attended school in Omak and eventually moved to Wenatchee where he graduated high school.

In 1979, he met and fell in love with Sabra and they married in 1981. He had two sons, Herbert (Herb) Siltman and Zechariah (Zech) Siltman.

In his earlier years, he worked in Orchards in Entiat and Lower Chelan area. Later, he became a truck driver, driving different types of trucks, (logging, doubles, flat beds). He owned his own truck for 9 years before becoming more stable in the valley.

He is a member of Faith Lutheran Church, East Wenatchee and a very faithful

Christian.

He is survived by his wife of 41 years, Sabra; sons, Herb (Anna) Siltman of Renton, Zech (engaged-Kilee) Siltman of Wenatchee; mother, Marilyn McManus of Grand Coulee; brother, Larry Siltman and nephew, Bert Siltman, both of Ellensburg.

He was preceded in death by his dad, Herbert Siltman; brother, Tim Siltman and nephew Jack Siltman.

The family would like to give special thanks to the Palliative Care and Hospice nurses and the Home Health Care Team for their guidance and great care to him during his illness. You are wonderful people And to my very special friend, Lori who cared for Nick daily during these past months and who introduced the two of us all those years ago in 1979.

Arrangements by Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
