Nona J. Bane

November 30, 1925 ~ September 24, 2014

Nona J. Bane was born on November 30, 1925, to James and Velma Silbaugh. Velma passed away when Nona was only a year old. Her father later married Mildred Corbin and it was then she acquired step-sister, Eleanor. A few years later, she became big sister to her brother, Bob, and sister, Carmen. Nona grew up in Iowa and married Dorsey Bane on December 24, 1946. They happily adopted Kim in 1955 and Talawna in 1962, when they were both only days old. Nona enjoyed waitress work, was a past member of Eastern Star, and was an accomplished artist. She was happiest fishing the rivers in Iowa or the lakes here in central Washington.

Nona is survived by her son, Kim Bane (Keum Ok); daughter, Talawna Sukovaty; four deeply loved grandchildren, Michael, Gina, Brooke and Travis; two great-grandchildren; her sister, Carmen Johnson; and three nieces, including Leilani, who always was there for her Aunt "Donut".

Graveside Memorial Services will be held at a later date in Dillavou Cemetery in Kendrick Township, Iowa. Arrangements are assisted by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.
