

Pamela Isaminger

February 2, 1947 - September 20, 2024

Pamela Isaminger of Wenatchee passed away in her sleep on Friday, September 20, 2024 at Colonial Vista Senior Living, she was 77 years old.

Pam was born in Seattle, Washington on February 2, 1947 and moved to Wenatchee in 1957. Pam lived a very happy and joyful life in the valley. She worked 30 years at the Chieftan Restaurant and then an additional 15 years at Safeway. These two service occupations brought her in contact with many people. It seemed like most of the valley knew Pam, and her friendly, happy personality, made her friends with all she met.

Pam was very active in the valley with her Bowling which she participated in for 49 years. She was in several tournaments, and maintained a 165 bowling average. She enjoyed golfing with her family and friends and loved lunch at Leavenworth Golf Course.

Pam was a giver, a helper, and a very hard worker. She will be missed.

A Memorial Service will be held on Sunday, October 13, 1:00 pm - 3:30 pm at Colonial Vista 625 Okanogan Ave., Wenatchee.
