Patricia Anne (O'Hare) Dufner

October 18, 1931 ~ November 24, 2013

Patricia Anne Dufner, a 60 year Wenatchee resident died on November 24, 2013 as the result of a stroke suffered two weeks earlier. Pat was born in Spokane, Washington on October 18, 1931 to Joseph and Mary Jane (Brophy) O'Hare. She was the youngest of 11 children. She graduated from Marycliff High School in 1949. In 1951, she married Robert Dufner, and moved to Moscow, ID where she worked as an insurance underwriter to put her husband through college. She then advanced to her life's work of being a mother, grandmother and homemaker. This was a challenge that she dearly loved and excelled at. In 1953, she began her 60-year Wenatchee residency, when her husband was hired by Alcoa as a process control engineer in their newly built aluminum smelter. Pat had two sons and two daughters. She was an active member of St Joseph's Catholic Church and St Damian's Guild.

She is survived by her husband, Robert; her daughters, Diane and Susan; her son, Daniel; her sister, Lucille; and her brother, Larry. She is also survived by four granddaughters: Danielle, Niki, Caitlin, and Ray; and one grandson, Miles. She was preceded in death by her son Robert; her parents; her brothers: Louis, Clement, Joseph and Thomas; and her sisters: Mary, Bernice,

Alice and Florence.
