

Pearline E Packwood

April 3, 1925 - August 18, 2019

Pearline Packwood, of Wenatchee, WA, was born April 3, 1925, and died August 18, 2019, at the age of 94. Pearlina was loved by a huge extended family which included four children; 11 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; and two great-great-grandchildren.

Pearline moved, as a young woman, to Wenatchee, where she resided for over 70 years. Five of her eight siblings settled in Wenatchee, too. Pearlina and her husband, Don Packwood, (deceased in 1994) owned and operated a small fruit orchard for many years. Pearlina retired from selling Avon at the age of 92, after a 50-year career with the company. Pearlina was devoted to her church and when asked to tell about herself, the first thing she said is, "I am a Christian". She loved her family, friends, fishing, beautiful flowers, being warm, and her dog, Mitsy.

A Celebration of Life will be held at the Nazarene Church, 1011 S. Miller St., Wenatchee, WA, on Friday, August 30, 2019, at 11:00 a.m., with a reception to follow at the church. Arrangements are by Chapel of the Valley, Wenatchee, WA.

“ Within my personal story are the influences of those lives who were an example for me. Among these is Aunt Pearline. With all my aunts & uncles and my dad, there weren't many details of their childhood and certainly never any complaints, but my conclusion was that their early life was hard. And especially for the women... their adult lives had plenty of challenges. Yet the example Aunt Pearline left me was of a beautiful smile and making the best of the life you've been given (enhanced by occasional Avon products!). Thanks you, Aunt Pearline, for being a model of living life well.
