“ Petra my sister, I should've been there, I wish things had come out differently. You truly saved my life more than on one occasion as I did yours. No more suffering, no more pain, I'm lost without your unique way of viewing life. My deepest apologies for taking so long to write this, I only just found it. That's me, a little late but always there eventually. I love you woman, from the time I met you 20 years ago until the end of time and beyond, my dear best friend.
