

Randy L. Stanfield

February 8, 1956 - March 9, 2016

Randy Lee Stanfield, age 60, passed away March 9, 2016 in Chelan Falls, WA. He was the husband of Kathie Marie Stanfield. She preceded him in death on February 26, 2016. The 17 years they were married were the happiest years of their lives. Kathie was Randy's anchor, and he was the love of her life. They were best friends and their love for each other was pure and unending. They completed each other. Born in Wenatchee, WA on February 8, 1956, he was the son of Bud and Zella Stanfield. Randy had many skills and seemed to excel at any task he set himself to do. His main profession was in the field of auto body repair and by all accounts, his work was meticulous. Randy is remembered for his love of the wilderness. His and Kathie's most treasured moments were found at their cabin in the woods. They found wholeness and peace in the quiet forest surroundings.

Randy's loss is deeply felt by family and friends, but we do not sorrow as those who have no hope, because Randy confessed and believed that Jesus is his

Lord and Savior. As it is written in the book of Thessalonians, we comfort ourselves with these words: "We shall all rise and be together again with our Lord."

Randy is survived by his siblings: Arlyn Stanfield, Gary Wright, Linda Dial, Donna Sapp Gossett, Judith Yates, Marsha Graham and Terry Wright; his step-daughters: Kristi, Jamie, Keelee and Mandi; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. He was loved by them all. He was preceded in death by his mother; father; his eldest sister, Janice; and wife, Kathie.

A Graveside Service will be held at the Wenatchee City Cemetery on Wednesday, March 16, at 1:30 p.m.
