“I met Big-Ray in the early 80's working for him on Smith creek, north of the arctic circle. The finest man I ever worked for or with. A Gentle Giant! I'd ask... anther beer Ray, and he'd always reply with his patent answer, YEPP. I shall miss you Ray, my friend, salt of the earth.

“ I met Ray in 1995 when I first moved to Ninilchik. It would come as no surprise to anyone that learning any more about Ray than that he had been a gold miner up north and found work here as mechanic, took years worth of little sentences here and there to puzzle together how much more there was to this humble and quiet man. His mining friends loved and respected him. He broke his fishing pole and my tackle box at the same time when a big king hit. There are memories that won't be forgotten.

“ Ray,
You were such an awesome friend. Someone who had few words but made up for it in heart. You were always there for me and my family. My kids learned to crawl and walk and talk with you in their lives. How wonderful that was for them to have you as an endearing rock of support and love. Thank-You for all the joy you brought to my family and for all the hard work and unfaltering support you always gave us. I will always love you.
