

Richard Garlini

January 24, 1952 - September 18, 2014

Richard Garlini

1952 ~ 2014

Richard Garlini, adored husband, father, nonno, brother, uncle, and friend, died peacefully on September 18, 2014, with family surrounding him. Richard was born in Wales, England in 1952. The Garlini family lived in Italy, Africa, and finally immigrated to the United States in 1967. Richard lived in California, where he met his wife, Diane. After marriage and two kids, they decided to move to Wenatchee, WA in 1979, to make a better life in a smaller town. From 1982 to 1996, Richard and Diane successfully operated Garlini's Restaurant, where Richard impacted many people in his life. It is not uncommon to hear from past employees stating positive praise for Richard for being not only an employer, but a mentor. He truly made a difference in the lives of the people he met and he enjoyed his life in the Wenatchee Valley. Richard and Diane recently celebrated their 40th Wedding Anniversary amongst friends and family. His daughters, Jenny and Rachel, and his four grandchildren were a source of great pride and joy. Enjoying friends in the community, playing Bocce, and being a longtime member of the NCW Sons of Italy were among his many favorite activities. Richard will truly be missed and his departure leaves a great void in the lives of those who knew him.

A Celebration of Life in honor of Richard will be held at the Garlini home in East Wenatchee on Saturday, October 18, 2014, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Arrangements are assisted by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee.

Tribute Wall

AO

“ Hello,

I am Anna Laura from Naples .. my mum and dad are looking for his old friend who has lived in Naples when was young and his name is Richard Garlini. Sadly i came up on this page and i d like to know if is the same person.

If not, i m sorry to bother u. Thanks anyway.

Anna laura Orefice - December 27, 2020 at 09:56 AM