

Rollin Goodman

October 17, 1926 - June 29, 2016

Rollin Dwight Goodman died Wednesday, June 29, 2016 at home with his family, and went to be with his Lord and Savior in Heaven. He was born on October 17, 1926 in Freewater, OR to Linn and Lucille (Richards) Goodman. Later, his family moved to Wenatchee, WA around 1934, where he attended area schools, graduating from Wenatchee High School. With WWII going on, Rollin enlisted in the Navy in 1944, where he served until the end of the war. When he returned home, he worked at a box factory and a lumber mill before joining the U.S. Postal Service. Rollin also worked in real estate, farmed an apple orchard and helped build the Miss Veedol airplane.

An early marriage gave Rollin his four children. He later married Carolyn MaGee. In his retirement, he enjoyed fishing with his son, Paul; traveling to Parklands with his daughter, Connie and grandson, Nick; vacations with family at his cabin; walking with his dog and golfing. The most important part of Rollin's life was his faith and his belief in Jesus Christ to be the son of the living God. His Church Family was very dear to him.

Rollin was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers; a sister; his wife, Carolyn; two sons, Paul and Dean; stepson, Rick; and grandson, Mark.

He

is survived by his brother, Dick; two daughters, Patti and Connie; four grandchildren: Julie, Rachel, Rebecca and Nicholas; seven great-grandchildren;
two great-great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank Confluence Health Hospice and Healthy Options Home Care for their awesome, amazing and caring people.

A Funeral Service will be held at Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA on Tuesday, July 12, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. Concluding services and interment will follow at Wenatchee City Cemetery. Arrangements are by Telford's Chapel of the Valley, East Wenatchee, WA.
