“ Grandpa Russ was always one of my biggest allies. His love knew no bounds. From helping me tie my shoes, fixing sprinklers I ran over, taking me to town in his Lincoln town car, sharing his candy stash, going camping , giving life advice(or talking to) and most of all his big heart. Like countless others he was always there for me, the list is so long. And when I had children of my own he showed them just as much love, support, sweetness and sternness when needed. I loved growing up with him and grandma Kathy. They were both so supportive of each other and set such good examples as a couple. They are both greatly missed and loved.

With love, granddaughter, Alicia (Kathy and Annette's daughter)
