“ I don't recall a time in my life when Sandy wasn't smiling, flashing those beautiful dimples and sparkling eyes! She exuded love!

From my childhood memories of playing in the “big girls” room on Western Avenue (Tanya and I LOVED her transistor radio, for some reason 😊) to our recent conversations about our children and grandchildren and the privilege to be in their lives, Sandy was kind and thoughtful. She held my hand when I was little. She helped me with my twins in the early days of motherhood. She always ended our conversations with “Love ya, Nik”. What a blessing to have her, what a wonderful cousin.

Sending all my love to her precious family! You are her pride and joy! She'll be dearly missed and always remembered with love ❤️

The photo I shared was one of the first times I got to give her something.. I did not know at the time her faith was so powerful to not be one to wear any necklace or other adornment. She really did not ever need to the wonderful soul she carried inside showed in each smile. She was the best wife, Mother, Grandma and most of all one of the key supporters of my life path.
